BRANSON, FARRAR & CO.
FAYETTEVILLE STREET.
1863.

PREFACE.

---

THIS little volume is designed for small children; and the only merit the author claims, is, that it is adapted to the young mind.

Since children very rarely learn to read in the Primer, we deem it unnecessary to take up much space with reading lessons.

The competent teacher will understand how to use the work.

HAPPY LAND

There is a happy land,
Far, far away ;
Where saints in glory stand,
Bright, bright as day.
Oh how they sweetly sing ?

Worthy is our Saviour King,
Loud let his praises ring,
Praise, praise for aye.

Come to this happy land,
Come, come away ;
Why will ye doubting stand,
Why still delay ?

O we shall happy be ?
When from sin and sorrow free
Lord we shall reign with thee,
Blest, blest for aye.

— DIXIE PRIMER —

Bright in that happy land,
Beams every eye;
Kept by a Father's hand,
Love cannot die.
O then to glory run
Be a crown and kingdom won,
And bright above the sun
We'll reign for aye.

---

All children should pray. Here is a prayer to say at night. You must learn it.

Now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray the Lord my soul to keep;
And if I die before I wake,
I pray the Lord my soul to take,
And this I ask for Jesus' sake,
AMEN.

MARY'S LITTLE LAMB.

Mary had a little lamb,
Its fleece was white as snow;
And every where that Mary went
The lamb was sure to go.

He followed her to school one day,
Which was against the rule—
It made the children laugh and play
To see a lamb at school.

So the teacher turned him out,
 But still he lingered near;
 And waited patiently about,
 Till Mary did appear.

And then he ran to her an' laid
 His head upon her arm,
 As if he said, I'm not afraid,
 You'll keep me from all harm.

---

“I WANT TO BE AN ANGEL.”

---

I want to be an angel,
 And with the angels stand,
 A crown upon my forehead,
 A harp within my hand.
 There right before the Saviour
 So glorious and so bright,
 I'd make the sweetest music,
 And praise Him day and night.

I never should be weary,
 Nor ever shed a tear;
 Nor ever know a sorrow,
 Nor ever feel a fear.
 But blessed, pure and holy,
 I'd dwell in Jesus' sight,
 And with ten thousand thousand,
 Praise Him both day and night.

I know I'm weak and sinful,
 But Jesus will forgive,
For many little children
 Have gone to Heaven to live.
Dear Saviour, when I languish
 And lay me down to die,
O send a shining angel
 To bear me to the sky.

O there I'll be an angel,
 And with the angels stand,
Acrown upon my forehead,
 A harp within my hand;
And there before my Saviour,
 So glorious and so bright,
 I'll join the heavenly music,
 And praise Him day and night.

INFANT CATECHISM.

Q. Who made you?
A. God.
Q. Of what did he make you?

A. They go to Hell.

Q. Who loves good children?

 A. Jesus Christ.
 Q. Should you not love Jesus?
 A. Yes, with all my heart.

Now, little children, you must learn this book well, and try to be good. Perhaps we will send you another one with pretty stories, one of these days.

Here is a little prayer which you must learn, and repeat every morning when you rise from your bed;

Now I awake and see the light,
 'Tis God who kept me through the night;
 To Him I lift my voice and pray
 That He will keep me through this day.
 If I should die before 'tis done,
 Oh! God accept me through thy Son.

AMEN.
